“What Shareholders Really Want: A Fund Manager’s Perspective on IR”

Thursday, 13 March 2014, 11:30 am to 1:00 pm, Semeru CLSA Capital Partners

Dear IRPAS members,

Please join us for an intimate coffee session as we demystify what shareholders really want and crack the code of how IR is, and should, become a strategic business function for listed companies – from the perspective of a fund manager.

Date: Thursday, 13 March 2014

Time: 11:30 am to 1:00 pm

Venue: CLSA, UOB Plaza 1, 80 Raffles Place #18-01
Singapore 048624

We are delighted to present Mr Simon Weston, Managing Director and Portfolio Manager, Semeru CLSA Capital Partners, who will take us into the minds of fund managers and share his personal insights into:

- Knowing your shareholders
- Listening to your shareholders’ needs, and communicating it
- Creating tangible shareholder value: the dividend
- The reward of effective IR

With over 20 years’ experience in investment management in the Asian markets, Simon joined CLSA Capital Partners in 2007, where he is currently portfolio manager for the Semeru Asian Equity High Yield Fund. Simon started his career as an analyst at Lloyds Investment Managers in the UK and also worked at Hill Samuel Asset Managers and then Old Mutual Asset Managers, where he was head of the Asia ex-Japan investment team.

With best regards
