

International Certificate in Investor Relations 2020

The International Certificate in Investor Relations (ICIR) is an internationally recognised qualification in investor relations (IR). It is regarded as an essential pre-requisite for those entering the IR profession, and a valuable benchmark for those already in the profession.

Objective of ICIR

The qualification allows successful candidates to demonstrate their knowledge of the financial and market environment, the regulatory and reporting requirements for listed companies and their sound understanding of the principles of investor relations, which will enable them to operate competently and safely.

ICIR 2020 Programme

The ICIR is based on the new international syllabus provided by the Investor Relations Society of UK (IRS) and administered by the Investor Relations Professionals Association (Singapore) (IRPAS).

Supported by:

International Certificate in Investor Relations

Benefits of the Certification

- ✓ Provides international recognition as qualified IR practitioner
- ✓ Enhances career development
- ✓ Demonstrates competence and growing expertise

Obtaining the qualification

The qualification is suitable for anyone working in investor relations or related professions, or considering a move into investor relations, either in Singapore, the UK or overseas.

The ICIR is a self-study qualification based on a comprehensive ICIR study guide. The qualification is assessed by an examination comprising 60 multiple-choice questions, based on the topics set out in the syllabus.

It is expected that candidates will need around 50 hours of self-study to be successful in the exam. In addition, candidates are encouraged to take the online mock examination as a revision aid and consider attending a revision course.

On completion the candidate will

1. Be awarded the Certification jointly issued and recognised by both IRPAS and IR Society UK
2. Know the main regulations governing the structure, governance and behaviour of listed companies
3. Know the types of shares and shareholders
4. Know the role of stock exchanges
5. Know the regulations governing the conduct of investor relations and in particular the disclosure of information
6. Know the legal requirements regarding the financial calendar
7. Be familiar with the fundamentals of accounting, ratios, valuation and investment analysis
8. Be aware of the requirements upon listed companies of the conduct of investor relations in major overseas markets
9. Have an awareness of the conduct of investor relations appropriate to a practitioner
